1,992 undergraduate and 124 graduate students began the 2009–2010 school year. 330 students earned credit while participating in 29 programs in 28 countries. The top two majors were business and elementary education.

Memorable chapels included fall Spiritual Renewal with Chris Williamson, spring Spiritual Renewal with Dr. Allen Farmer (former campus pastor), and Relational Enrichment Week/ Sex in the Cornfields with Lowell Seashore.

welcoming the new and old to upland

The transition to Taylor Upland has been easier than I thought. Although that first week was certainly overwhelming, my PAs and professors were all very helpful. What a huge blessing!

—Caitlin Wilson '12

1. Zach Eastburn and Liz Slinger follow instructions from the caller during the annual Welcome Weekend Hoedown.
2. Freshman James Carroll begins the monumental process of unpacking boxes and moving into his new home in Samuel Morris Hall.
3. Gearing up for classes, MinWong You and Kevin Baker search for their books in the newly organized Campus Store.
4. Freshman Matt Witt celebrates his O-group's victory as they participate in a variety of team-building activities the Saturday before classes begin.

I love the noodle-making project because it's an excuse to get messy, and it's beautiful to see students and faculty come together to serve Grant County. I'm amazed at what two dozen eggs and 12 cups of flour can do through the power of Christ's love.

—Noelle Faasse '13

1. Every freshman faced the challenges of the low ropes course with their O-group, working with their peers to complete the tasks before them and learning lessons that will benefit them throughout their college experience.
2. Morgan Worrell dives into helping out the Upland Fire Department at the yearly Community Plunge. Students from all over campus volunteered to help serve people in Grant County.
3. The campus united to welcome and pray for the incoming freshmen at the first chapel of the year.
4. Cade Weston and Rachel Tomasik "swing their partner" at the hoedown. Students made new friends, became reaqainted with old ones, and danced with them all.

1. Nate Estelle leads Third Center Olson and First East Wengatz in their "Thriller/Disturbia" act, complete with the moon-walk. This year's Airband hosted two different Michael Jackson songs in rememberance of his life and musical talent.
2. Straight out of Disney's "Beauty and the Beast," Jake Bourdon and Bethany Smith bring the familiar tune of "Be Our Guest" to life and, along with First West Wengatz and Second West Olson, are awarded second place.
3. Brittany Wilt leads the seniors as they end the night with a bang—or "Boom"—during their encore performance of the Black Eyed Pea's "Boom Boom Pow." The class not only resurrected an all-senior performance after two years without it but also secured a first place victory.

—Jenny Stringer '11

1.Mary Lou Habecker patricipates in the Freshmen Class Challenge with Caroline Hays and Sarah Nace. Attempting to collectively eat all 100 shakes from Ivanhoes, these three choose to indulge on #28: Chocolate Peanut Butter Pretzel.
2. Whitney Wood and her parents enjoy the special weekend as they share a laugh with other families after chapel.

3. Early Saturday morning during the annual Homecoming 5k race, David Lew paces himself. This year, runners supported OneVerse, with proceeds aiding Bible translation for the Aché people of Paraguay.

4. Students at Friday's Homecoming chapel enjoyed the music of Roger Beaverson, Tom Rumney, Adolf Hansen and Martin Hess. Still singing together 50 years later, this quartet relived old memories in Rediger Auditorium.
